Deadline for applications : Wednesday 14 April 2010.

Details

The £750 budget may be used for production costs and general expenses incurred by yourself or your group. If you are not familiar with any software or equipment required for the production, you may be asked to undertake a period of training at Exeter Phoenix Digital. Any external tutor costs must be met by the applicant.

Following the deadline, the panel will draw up a shortlist of successful candidates and interview shortly afterwards if unable to make a decision purely on the strength of the applications.

The successful candidate will be asked to arrange a production schedule with Exeter Phoenix Digital.

A staff member will aid organization of the project and Exeter Phoenix Digital will act as Executive Producers of the work. The copyright of the project will remain with the artist but Exeter Phoenix will own distribution rights.

Projects must be completed and delivered by 18 October 2010.

The completed work will be exhibited by Exeter Phoenix Digital & Galleries in a manner appropriate to the project. This may, for example be in one of our exhibition spaces or as a web-based project on the Exeter Phoenix website. Extra funding, support & advice from Exeter Phoenix Galleries may also be available to realise the project (where appropriate) within a gallery setting.
